

Imagine you have witnessed a dog-fight in the Battle of Britain and you have been asked to share the details of what you saw. Use the information you have learnt in the lesson to help you include important facts.

You should try to include details about the following: Who was involved in the battle, what happened (what you could see, hear, smell etc.), how you felt watching it, how you think the pilots felt, who won and how it ended.

History | LKS2 | World War II | The Battle of Britain | Lesson 4