Reading and Books for Home Reading

Dear Parents,

Thank you for your feedback on the introduction of our new eBook Library for your child's reading books. As a school we strive to develop a love of reading and sharing books. It has been lovely to hear the excitement from the children who have shared and celebrated their reading success with their families. Please can I ask that you continue to record the eBook reading in your child's reading record. The electronic books do not need to be read every night. However, please make sure your child has the opportunity to share the book that they have been studying in school at least once with you at home so they can proudly show off their reading skills. I have taken onboard comments regarding screen time; it should take no longer than ten minutes for your child to read their electronic book.

As previously mentioned at the recent induction meeting, we would like you to continue sharing daily stories with your child and this reading needs to be recorded in their reading records too. Further to requests for hard copy books, the school has decided an additional book will be sent home each Friday. This book will be based on the phase of phonics and its associated sounds that your child has a secure knowledge in but it will not have been read in school. It is important to note your child might bring home a book they have previously read as the books have all been relabeled to match our phonics teaching. It is fine for children to reread books and they will not move to the next set of books until they are secure in that set of sounds.

For those who still have not accessed the eBook Library, here is a reminder of the login details. Visit the following website:

You will then need to enter your child's username and password. You will find this information on a label on the front of their reading record.

If you have any further questions, please speak to myself or your child's class teacher.

Kind regards,
